CAREER BRIEF

Daniel P. Mears is the Mark C. Stafford Professor of Criminology in the Florida State University College of Criminology and Criminal Justice and a Fellow of the American Society of Criminology. He conducts research on crime causation and social programs and policies, focusing on criminal and juvenile justice and crime prevention and intervention strategies. As a Principal Investigator or lead researcher, he has conducted studies funded by such federal agencies as the National Council on Disability, National Institute of Justice, National Institute on Drug Abuse, and the Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, and state agencies, including the Florida Department of Corrections, as well as by foundations, including the California Endowment, Hogg Foundation for Mental Health, Joyce Foundation, and the William and Flora Hewlett Foundation.

His views have been covered in media outlets, including ABC News, Associated Press, Austin American-Statesman, Baltimore Sun, Boston Globe, CBS News, Dallas Morning News, Florida Sun-Sentinel, The Hill, The Houston Chronicle, International Herald Tribune, Los Angeles Times, Miami Herald, Minneapolis Star Tribune, New York Times, Orlando Sentinel, San Jose Mercury News, Tallahassee Democrat, Time, United Press International, USA Today, Washington Post, and Washington Times, and television and radio shows. His research has appeared in such journals as Crime and Delinquency, Criminal Justice and Behavior, Criminal Justice Policy Review, Criminal Justice Review, Criminology, Federal Sentencing Reporter, Journal of Criminal Justice, Journal of Interpersonal Violence, Journal of Quantitative Criminology, Journal of Research in Crime and Delinquency, Journal of Sociology and Social Welfare, Justice Quarterly, Law and Policy, Law and Society Review, Punishment and Society, and Sociological Perspectives. He is the author of American Criminal Justice Policy (Cambridge University Press), Prisoner Reentry in the Era of Mass Incarceration (Sage Publications, with Joshua C. Cochran), and Out-of-Control Criminal Justice (Cambridge University Press).

Dr. Mears served as a Senior Research Associate at the Urban Institute's Justice Policy Center (2002-2005; Research Associate 2001-2002), an Adjunct Professor at American University's School of Public Affairs (2004), a Post-Doctoral Research Fellow at the University of Texas at Austin's Center for Criminology and Criminal Justice Research (1999-2000), an Instructor at Southwestern University (1998), and an Evaluation Research Fellow with the Hogg Foundation for Mental Health (1996-1997). He was nominated for the University of Texas' Outstanding Dissertation Award and appointed to the Phi Kappa Phi national honor society. He served as a Peace Corps Volunteer in Micronesia (1991-1992) and as a program manager and counselor working with abused adolescents in Massachusetts (1988-1991).
