- Return health forms and proof of immunization
Before you are able to register for classes, you must submit documented proof of immunizations and health insurance to FSU's University Health Services. For more information on how to submit these documents, please contact University Health Services or visit their website (<http://uhs.fsu.edu/compliance.html>).

- Start looking for housing
Off Campus: <http://www.rent.com> <http://www.apartments.com>
On Campus: <http://www.housing.fsu.edu>

- Apply for financial aid
It is important for all graduate students to fill out the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) as soon as possible. For more information visit <http://www.finaid.fsu.edu>

All doctoral students must complete the FAFSA by July 1 to be eligible for the Graduate Dean's one-time $1,000 scholarship for new doctoral students.

- Apply for a parking permit
Students must obtain a parking permit for vehicles, including motorcycles and scooters, in order to park on campus. The permits are free to students and can be obtained at <http://transportation.fsu.edu>.

- Plan to attend the College's graduate student orientation
It is highly recommended that you attend the College's orientation.
Date: August 21, 2017

- Plan to attend the Graduate School's orientation

Registration for this orientation opens in the summer. For more information visit <http://gradschool.fsu.edu>.

- Declare Florida residency

If you are an out-of-state student who received an assistantship you must begin the Florida residency process before classes begin. Out-of-state tuition will only be waived for the first year of your assistantship. For more information on declaring Florida residency please contact the Registrar's Office or visit their website (<http://admissions.fsu.edu/residency/policy/reclassification.cfm>).

- Find out more

If you want to learn more about life as a criminology graduate student, get tips on where to live, or have any other questions, email a graduate student at crimgradstudent@fsu.edu.

If you have questions about orientation, coursework, or your degree's curriculum, please contact the Graduate Student Coordinator, Margarita Frankeberger, by email (crimgradprogram@fsu.edu) or phone (850-644-7373).

You can also contact the graduate student orientation leaders Katie Ray (kgr13b@my.fsu.edu) and Caroline Bailey (cmb14r@my.fsu.edu) with any questions.
