SUMMARY OF EXPERIENCE:

Dr. Waldo's experience covers a wide range of activities related to academic criminology and the criminal justice system. This includes over 35 years of University teaching, administration, and research as well as practical experience in the juvenile and criminal justice field. He has taught a wide range of graduate and undergraduate courses with a major emphasis in the areas of research methods, general criminology, juvenile justice, law and social control, and corrections.

He has written more than 150 articles, books, papers, and grant reports, received more than $12,000,000 in contracts and grants, and has conducted numerous research projects concerned with many factors related to crime, juvenile justice, and the criminal justice system. These projects have covered all phases of the research process and have involved a wide variety of research approaches. Major areas of research concentration have been theory testing, crime prevention and deterrence, and juvenile and criminal justice program evaluation. He is frequently called upon as a consultant and expert witness.

Dr. Waldo's administrative experience includes serving as Dean of the School of Criminology at F.S.U., Director of the Criminology Program at F.S.U., Director of the F.S.U. Southeastern Correctional and Criminological Research Center, and Program Manager of the F.S.U. Juvenile Justice Educational Enhancement Program. He also had administrative experience while working in the criminal justice system and has served on or chaired numerous School of Criminology, University, and national association committees and task forces.
