

2017-18 Graduate Handbook Online Master's Program

Contents

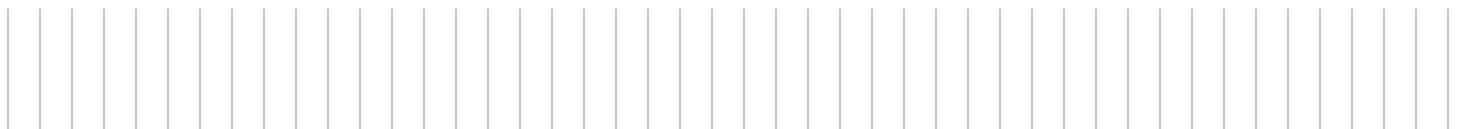

Introduction	2
Degree Tracks.....	3
Degree Requirements.....	4
Core Courses	4
Elective Courses	4-5
Coursework Checklist.....	5
Administrative Information	6
Frequently Asked Questions	7
Faculty	8

This guide, in conjunction with the University Graduate Bulletin, is intended to provide graduate students with a reference concerning program requirements. Please consult the University Graduate Bulletin for academic regulations and procedures and student services.

Any questions you have about your graduate career in the FSU College of Criminology and Criminal Justice may be directed to the College's Graduate Program Office at:

crimgradprogram@fsu.edu
P: 850.645.9169

Updated August 2017

Master's Program

Orientation

All new FSU distance learning students must complete on-line orientation before registering for classes. Soon after being admitted to the University, please complete the on-line orientation at: distance.fsu.edu/students/now-what.

Here students will learn about academic policies and procedures, obtain their FSU card number, find registration information, and create their mandatory Academic Computing and Network Services (ACNS) account with FSU. The FSU card number and password is essential in facilitating your access to the FSU library database and logging on to Blackboard. You may log onto Blackboard at campus.fsu.edu.

Master's Degree Tracks

There are three regular degree tracks or options of study within the master's degree program. These include a course work option, a thesis option, and area paper option.

1. Course Work Only Option: The course work only option requires the completion of 36 credits of course work. Students electing this option are advised by the graduate coordinator or graduate director, who are to be consulted by the student with regard to their course schedules and academic progress in the program.

2. Thesis Option*: The thesis option requires the successful completion of 30 semester hours of course work and 6 hours of thesis credits. Students choosing to complete a thesis must identify a major professor and supervisory committee, subject to the approval of the dean. This option also requires an oral defense of the thesis and that the thesis be submitted in a University approved format. Copies of the formal guidelines and requirement for preparation of a thesis are available on the Office of Graduate Studies Web site, at fsu.edu/gradstudies or through your GradSpace site in Blackboard.

3. Area Paper Option*: The area paper option requires the successful completion of 30 semester hours of course work and 6 hours of area paper credits. Students choosing to complete an area paper must identify a major professor and supervisory committee, subject to the approval of the dean.

*Note: Any individualized course such as area paper, thesis, directed individual study (DIS), etc. will be subject to out-of-state tuition rates and fees for out-of-state students. Individualized courses are not eligible for market rate tuition or for state tuition waivers.

Thesis and Area Paper Distinction

The committee structure differs for an area paper and a thesis. Typically, the area paper takes two semesters to complete and involves a high quality literature review and critique that is focused on one subject that the student is particularly interested in investigating. A thesis, on the other hand, is based on the manipulation and analysis of a particular body of data. In most cases the thesis requires two semesters to complete. When completing a thesis, it is not necessary that the student is the one who originally collected the data; secondary data analysis is typically done.

Students are required to seek Institutional Review Board (IRB) approval prior to commencing any research involving human subjects. The student's name must appear on the approval form as a PI or co-PI for the period of time when the student's research was conducted. Failure to obtain the required approvals may result in the area paper or thesis being embargoed and unpublishable in any form.

Major Professor and Master's Supervisory Committee

Students who choose the thesis or area paper option should select a permanent major professor soon after entering the program. In most cases this should be done by the end of the first year. They may choose anyone on the faculty who has "graduate faculty" status by requesting that the faculty member serve in this capacity. If the faculty member agrees to serve, the student must notify the graduate coordinator of the appointment and seek the dean's approval. Those choosing the course work-only option for the degree will use the graduate coordinator as their faculty advisor throughout their tenure in the program.

The master's degree supervisory committee is composed of the major professor and two other faculty members holding master's directive status. Students are expected to choose their additional committee members with the assistance of their major professor. Once selected, the names are submitted to the dean for approval.

Master's Requirements

Master's students must complete 36 credits for the degree. These credits are composed of required "core" courses and Criminology and Criminal Justice elective hours, and may include hours taken outside of the College.

Coursework

Core Courses

All students must complete each of the following five core courses with a letter grade of “C” or better. If a lower grade is earned in these courses, they must be retaken. A required course may only be retaken once. Students must maintain an overall 3.0 GPA or higher. Failure to maintain a minimum 3.0 GPA will first result in academic probation and if not corrected in the following semester of enrollment, will result in academic dismissal.

CCJ 5078 Computer Applications in Criminal Justice

Introduces the use of the computer and the Internet. Will include discussion of the use of these technologies within the criminal justice system. Class will cover word processing, spreadsheets, databases, graphics, and Internet applications such as e-mail, chat, forum discussions, search engines, Web browsers, etc.

CCJ 5285 Survey of Criminal Justice Theory and Research

Gives an overview of the theoretical issues and research on the law and legal control of deviance in society.

CCJ 5606 Survey of Criminological Theories

Provides students with a deeper understanding of criminological theory. Physiological, genetic, psychological, and psychiatric theories of criminal behavior are explored.

CCJ 5705 Research Methods in Criminology

Overviews research design for criminological studies with an emphasis on data collection methods and measurement of validity and reliability.

CCJ 5706 Applied Statistics in Criminology

Focuses on the use of statistical techniques in criminology.

Sampling of Elective Courses

CJJ 5020 Juvenile Delinquency

Key issues in the study of juvenile delinquency, with special attention to three topics: (1) our society’s social construction of concepts like “childhood” and “adolescence” (and the implications this has for our views of juvenile delinquency), (2) the different theoretical perspectives used to explain individual variations in juvenile delinquency, and (3) current thinking and research on the question of how our justice system should best respond to juvenile delinquency.

CJE 5024 Police and Society

A social psychological examination of current issues and problems in municipal law enforcement, including such topics as the informal exercise of police authority, police role conflict, the relative significance of law enforcement and social service, and interactional dynamics of police subculture.

CCJ 5320 Penology

A survey of approaches to corrections, correctional institutions, their residents, programs and management, and special problems such as probation and parole, riots, outside contacts, and special institutions.

CCJ 5456 Criminal Justice Administration

An application of organization and administration theories to the criminal justice system. The course uses an interactionist perspective of administration to facilitate understanding of the fundamentals of all organizations, including criminal justice organizations.

CCJ 5546 Prevention and Treatment of Crime and Delinquency

Theoretical development of crime prevention, punishment, and treatment. Topics include historical models of crime control, growth of crime prevention, and aspects such as environmental design, community action programs, and technology systems.

CCJ 5636 Comparative Criminology and Criminal Justice

Offers a comparative analysis of crime issues worldwide and reviews criminal justice system responses to both localized and transnational crime

CCJ 5669 Race, Ethnicity, Crime, and Social Justice

Considers the relationships among race, ethnicity, and crime in the justice system. The effect of social policy on racial and ethnic inequality is studied, and theories of ethnic and racial justice are presented in terms of their effect on crime and criminal justice.

CCJ 5981r. Directed Individual Study

A course with contents determined by the student in consultation with the instructor, with whom the student meets regularly for supervision of study. May be repeated to a maximum of 6 hours. (S/U grade only)

CCJ 6665 Victimology

Introduces students to the field of victimology and explores its conceptual boundaries, basic concepts, and literature within various sub areas. The course will explore policy developments and practical applications that stem from the concern over victims. The progression from a criminal to a victim justice system will be emphasized.

CCJ 6920r* Biosocial Criminology

This course examines the development of criminal offending from conception through adulthood. A range of topics are covered including brain development, personality formation, and the biosocial correlates to criminality.

Administrative Information

Transfer Credit Policy

Up to 6 graduate level credit hours from another accredited university or college may be counted toward your degree at FSU. These credits must be approved by the director of the distance learning program. Graduate credit hours used toward another posted degree cannot be counted. Transfer credit must have been completed within the seven year time limit to complete the master's degree. A grade of B or better must be earned and courses must be at the graduate level. The transfer credit GPA is not included in the FSU GPA.

Textbook Information

Some of your on-line learning courses may require you to purchase a Course Packet, which will include some combination of the following:

- Study Guide—This is your key to the course, as it contains your course syllabus, descriptions of course activities and resources, assignments, and a course calendar. It may also provide additional course content.
- Textbooks—Most courses have required readings, which include textbooks and other published materials.

How to order

Course packets and materials for the on-line classes are usually available through the FSU bookstore. In some cases, individual instructors may choose to make materials available through other outlets.

When ordering, be certain to include the following:

1. Course prefix and number
2. Section number
3. Course title
4. Semester and year
5. Your name and shipping address

FSU Bookstore
Main Level Parking Garage
Florida State University
Tallahassee, FL 32306-4113
www.bkstr.com/floridastatestore/home

Drop/Add

Students may add or drop classes themselves from their schedule through the fourth day of classes. For deadline date, refer to the Academic Calendar on the Registrar's Web site: <http://registrar.fsu.edu>.

University Time Limits for Degree Completion

Florida State University requires that work toward the master's degree be completed within 7 years of one's initial enrollment.

Any work transferred from another school is included in the seven year rule.

Graduation

In addition to meeting all the master's degree completion requirements, students must complete the following:

- Request a graduation check with the graduate coordinator during the semester preceding graduation to determine eligibility for the degree.
- Apply for graduation through Student Central during the first two weeks of the last semester. (Those who apply for graduation but do not complete the necessary work during that semester must self-delete with the Registrar's Office and register again during the first two weeks of the semester in which they plan to graduate.)

The College of Criminology and Criminal Justice will clear master's students for graduation with course work only if they are a terminal master's student and do not intend to apply for the doctoral program. All other students must have a completed thesis or area paper before they will be cleared for graduation.

Permanent Withdrawal

To drop all classes or your only class, you must formally withdraw from the University. Do so by contacting your academic coordinator at crimgradprogam@fsu.edu, and then Withdrawal Services, 850-644-1741

There is no grade liability through the fourth week of the semester.

Students who cancel their registration and are not enrolled for the following term (not enrolled for two consecutive terms) must apply for readmission.

Readmission

Returning students who meet the following criteria must submit an application to the readmissions section of the Office of the University Registrar.

1. Withdrew during a previous term.
2. Canceled their registration and were not enrolled during the previous semester.
3. Have been out of school for two or more consecutive terms (including the summer term; finishing an incomplete does not count, you must be registered).

Students seeking readmission must meet the following application deadlines:

- Fall - July 1
- Spring - November 1
- Summer - March 1

Students claiming classification as Florida residents must also reestablish their eligibility for this classification when applying for readmission.

The University reserves the right to refuse readmission to any student who has an unsatisfactory academic, conduct, or health record.

2017–2018 Faculty

Bill Bales, Professor

Ph.D. Florida State University.
Sentencing, assessing the effectiveness and consequences of punishment strategies, evaluation of correctional practices and programs, community reentry

Kevin Beaver, Professor

Ph.D. University of Cincinnati.
Biosocial criminology, genetic/biological correlates of offending, life-course/developmental criminology, stability of violent behaviors

Tom Blomberg, Dean, Sheldon L.Messinger Professor of Criminology

Ph.D. University of California at Berkeley.
Delinquency, education, and crime desistance, penology and social control, victim services, criminological research and public policy

Ted Chiricos, William Julius Wilson Professor of Criminology

Ph.D. University of Massachusetts.
Social threat and social control, criminal sentencing, labeling effects, immigration

Cecelia Chouhy, Assistant Professor

Ph.D. University of Cincinnati.
Cross-national approach to: testing criminological theories, effectiveness of correction programs, sources of public opinion

Billy Close, Assistant Professor

Ph.D. Florida State University.
Race and justice, the political economy of crime and social control, popular perceptions of crime and punishment, media representation of crime and its consequences, sociological and criminological theory

Jennifer Copp, Assistant Professor

Ph.D. Bowling Green State University.
Intimate partner violence, consequences of incarceration, neighborhoods and crime, adolescence and young adulthood, health and well being

Megan Denver, Assistant Professor

Ph.D. University of Albany, SUNY
Criminal record stigma, employment and recidivism, desistance and life course theory, criminal research and public policy, and mixed methods.

Marc Gertz, Professor

Ph.D. University of Connecticut.
Public opinion and the criminal justice system, organization politics and the courts, comparative courts, interest groups, voting behavior

Carter Hay, Professor

Ph.D. The University of Texas at Austin.
Family- and parenting-related causes of adolescent crime, development of self-control and its implications for crime, effects of family and community poverty on crime, role of the family and community in affecting desistance from crime and prisoner reentry, link between public opinion and public policy in relation to the expanded use of incarceration

Gary Kleck,David J. Bordua Professor Emeritus

Ph.D. University of Illinois at Urbana.
Gun control, crime control, violence

Brendan Lantz, Assistant Professor

Ph.D. Pennsylvania State University
Group crime and co-offending, social networks, violence, hate and bias crime.

Dan Maier-Katkin, Professor

J.D. Columbia University.
Infanticide, law and society, juvenile justice, international human rights, crimes against humanity, criminal law

Dan Mears, Professor

Ph.D. The University of Texas at Austin.
Crime and delinquency, juvenile and criminal justice, crime theory, public policy and opinion, domestic violence, immigration, mental health, religion, sentencing, corrections and re-entry

Sonja Siennick, Associate Professor

Ph.D. Pennsylvania State University.
Crime and deviance, the life course, quantitative methods

Eric Stewart, Professor

Ph.D. Iowa State University.
Social processes and crime, neighborhood context and police behavior, recidivism among women offenders

Brian Stults, Associate Professor

Ph.D. University at Albany (SUNY).
Race and crime, neighborhoods and crime, residential segregation

Jillian Turanovic, Assistant Professor

Ph.D. Arizona State University.
Victimization, incarceration, crime and deviance, life course theory

Gordon Waldo, Professor Emeritus

Ph.D. Ohio State University.
Research methods, law and social control, corrections, delinquency, juvenile justice

Patricia Warren, Associate Professor

Ph.D. North Carolina State University.
Racial profiling, race and class inequalities, disparities in criminal justice processing, crime and social control

Marin Wenger, Assistant Professor

Ph.D. Pennsylvania State University.
Stratification, communities and crime deviance, quantitative methods